THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 30. CONSECRATION OF BISHOP WHITTLE, -The consecration of the Rev. F. M. Whittle, Assistant Episcopal Bishop of Virginia, at St. Paul's Church, to day, was witnessed by an exceedingly large number of spectators from this city, from the District of Columbia, from the surrounding counties, and from all parts of the State. Arrangements had been made by the wardens of the church for the comfortable seatiog of all they supposed would be present, but so great was the crowd that although the benches from the Lecture Room were ranged in the aisles of the church, many, being unable to obtain other than standing room on the floor were compelled to withdraw.

About forty or fifty of the clergy, chiefly from Maryland, the District of Columbia and Virginia, were in attendance, and occupied the seats reserved for them on each side of the chancel. Within the chancel Bishops Lee of Delaware, Bedell of Ohio, and Johns of Virginia, were seated; as were also the Rev. Mr. Kinsolving, of Middleburg, who read the full morning service, and the Rev. Mr. Norton, Rector of the church. Immediately in front of the chancel sat Bishop Whitele, supported on either side by the Rev. Mr. Fisher and the Rev. Mr. Meredith.

Bishop Johns presided.

The consecration sermon-a chaste, beautiful and appropriate discourse-was preached by Bishop Bedell, from the First Epistle of Timothy, III chapter and 15 verse:

"That thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.'

At the conclusion of the sermon the solemn and impressive services, as set forth for the consecration of Bishops, in the church manual, were performed, and the new Bishop took his seat within the chancel.

The holy communion was then partaken of by the Bishops and the clergy, and the benediction having been pronounced, the congregation was dismissed.

The choral music was supplied by the choir attached to the church, and was greatly ad-

RAPPAHANNOCK PRESBYTERY. - This body assembled in the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, last night, at 7½ o'clock, when after the usual religious exercises, the opening sermon was preached by the Rev. Robert L. Mc-Murran, who took for his text the 28th verse of the 1st chapter of Collossians. After the election of Rev. J. W. Lupton, of Leesburg, as Moderator, and Geo. W. Jamieson, of this city, as Clerk.

Without transacting any further business, Presbytery adjourned until Thursday at 10 o'clock.

The attendance is not large, but the business before the body will, is is thought, occupy the remainder of the week.

To-Day.-Presbytery met at 91 a. m., and after having an hour spent in devotional exercises, was called to order by the Moderatorbut without transacting any business, adjourned in a short time until 3 o'clock this evening.

EXPLOSION OF A BOMBSHELL.—Yesterday morning, about seven o'clock, as a party of German laborers, employees of Mr. Adolph Brehme, at Mathias's Point, on the Potomac, were very foolishly engaged in attempting to explore, with a hatchet, the mysteries of one of the numerous bombshells, fired at that place during the war by the U.S. gunboats, it unexpectedly exploded, and tore and mangled two of them in a shocking manner. They were put on toard of the steamer Express, yesterday evening, as she passed the Point, to be carried to the infirmary in Washington, but one of them died soon after the boat reached that city, and it is hardly probable that the other can survive the injuries he received.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT. - Alexandrians will have an opportunity, to morrow evening, of listening to such musical talent as has during the past winter charmed the admirers of the art divine, and won the applause of the critics in the larger cities of the Union. Miss Busk's concerts have everywhere attracted large and fashionable audiences, and from the rapidity with which the seats in the Assembly rooms are being secured, it is expected that Alexandria will afford no exception to the rule which has elsewhere prevailed.

FISHING SEASON. -There may not have been thus far, as many fish caught in the Potomac, as in some former years, but as prices have kept well up, the fishermen have been recompensed in proportion, and the increase in price, has, to them, made up for loss in quantity. Upon the whole, it is said, it is probable, this will turn out an average season—and hopes are entained that between this and the 10th and 14th of next month, there will be a large catch of both shad and herring.

FALSE INTELLIGENCE. - Many persons from Washington, are prevented from coming to this city to-day to witness the consecration services at St. Paul's Church, by notices in the newspapers of that city, stating that the ceremony would be performed in Leesburg, and that a train of cars would leave here for that town for the accommodation of those who would like to

BALL.—The ball of the Hope Hose Compaby, to be given to-morrow evening, at the rooms of the Eintracht, Washington Hall, will, it is confidently expected, prove a most agreeable entertainment. The managers promise that nothing shall be wanting on their part to render the evening's enjoyment a complete

LECTURE. - The Lecture on the religious aspect of Rome at the present time, by Bishop Bedell of Ohio, yesterday evening, at the Theological Seminary, was listened to by a large audience. In consequence of the lateness of the lecturer was not able to complete its delivery.

SECOND WARD RADICALS.—The regular meeting of the Second Ward Radical Club was held last night, at the school room, corner of Pitt and Princess streets, Levi Potter, colored, in the chair, and C. J. Burton, white, secretary. The meeting opened with prayer by Benj. Blair, colored. After disposing of the ordinary business of the meeting the following preamble and resolutions were offered by C. W. De Witt, through P. A. Breen, and adopted:

WHEREAS, the principles of the Republican party, as we understand them, are based upon the doctrine of justice to all and equality before the law, showing partiality to none, whether white or black; and, Whereas, our sole object is to establish that doctrine as the growing principle of the people of this State, in order thereby to promote the prosperity and happiness of all the people, and the welfare of our Commonwealth; and,

Whereas, in order to obtain that end, we should use the utmost caution in the selection of candidates, choosing none but reliable, truthful and honorable men, and eschewing all demagogues and disorganizers as unworthy of confidence, as well as unreliable and unfit to fill places of trust; and,

Whereas, the farce enacted last fall at Lyceum Hall, and in the nominating convention, where some half dozen would-be great men (God save the mark!) undertook, by a mean system of trickery, combined with an enormous amount of brass and effrontery, to cheat the mass of the party out of their choice of a candidate, is too vividly impressed on our minds to be easily or soon forgotton; and, Whereas, the same disorganizing faction who, after being defeated in their effort to force a minority candidate on the party last fall, and afterwards colluded with the rebels to defeat the regular nominee of the party, who was, undoubtedly, the choice of nine-tenths of the Republicans, by advocating and supporting a stump candidate, are again engaged in their unscrupulous work of disorganization; and,

Whereas, we are informed by the published proceedings of the Third and Fourth ward Republican Clubs, that none but members of those clubs will be permitted to participate in the discussion of the issues of the day, unless by unanimous consent of the members, clearly showing either that they are wise in their own conceit beyond measure, or else they fear to have the unvarnished truth too plainly spoken among them; therefore,

Resolved, That we have no desire to be factious or dictatorial, neither will we submit to unscrupulous tyranny and injustice, desiring only the faithful carrying out of the principles of the party, and peace and harmony to effect that object.

2. That it is self evident that the same spirit of rule or ruin is again rampant, as evinced by the action of the minority in their so-called county convention, held on Saturday evening last, said minority having withdrawn from the regular convention the day before, when they in order to get up the requisite number of votes complacently substituted men after their own hearts to fill the places of those delegates who did not attend their bogus convention, because they were opposed to them and their nefarious schemes to divide the party, and had also ful-filled their duty at the regular convention the day before.

3. That we earnestly caution and admonish that minority that if they consider the success of the principles of the party of more value to the masses of the people than the loaves and fishes to the hungry few who are longing after of the 1st chapter of Collossians. After the sermon, the Presbytery was organized by the time they desire no office, (dear disinterested souls!) not to force upon us by fraud, trickery and low cunning, as candidates men, who, last fall, displayed their brazen effrontery and con-temptible littleness, by endeavoring to deprive us of the chief benefit of the elective franchise, the right of a clear and decided majority of the party to select their candidates.

4. That we pledge ourselves to give a ready and cheerful support to the nominees of the party when those nominations evidently reflect the wishes of a majority of the Republicans of the election district, and recognizing the nominations made by the regular county convention on Friday last, as fairly made, and a just reflection of the public will, we, therefore, promise these candidates a zealous and earnest sup-

5. That we of the Second Ward, desiring to be enlightened and seeking for information, not considering ourselves wise beyond our day and generation, to that end desire a free and friendly interchange of opinions, and hereby extend a cordial invitation to both our friends and opponents from our sister wards to meet with us in council, and we promise them they will always find the latch string "hanging out."

The tollowing preamble and resolution was then read and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, the so-called Republican paper, The State Journal, published in this city, has persistenly misrepresented the acts of the Republican party of this county, and having sided with the seceders from the County Convention, held in this city, on Friday, April 24, 1868, for the purpose of selecting delegates, &c., and supports the nominees of bogus delegates and bolters from the regular Convention, in opposition to the regular nominees of the party;

Resolved, That the State Journal is no longer worthy of the confidence or support of any true Republican, and we call upon all Republicans to utterly ignore it as an organ of the Republican party of this county.

The meeting was then addressed by W. L. Penn, P. A. Breen, E. D. Sullivan and John Brooks, white, and by - King, - Johnson and --- Yull, colored, after which it adjourned to reassemble next Wednesday night.

FIFTH DISTRICT RADICALS.—A large meet ing of the Radicals of the Fifth or country Magisterial District of this county, was held last night, at Arlington, W. A. Rowe, colored, in the Chair, and Austin Syphax, colored, Secretary. The action of the late County Convention, and that of the Belters Convention, as discussed by John Hawxhurst and John Birrell, white, and by W. A. Rowe and Austin Syphax, colored, in support of that of the former, and by Lysander Hill, J. M. Thatcher and I. C. O'Neal, white, in support of the latter. Without arriving at any definite conclusion respecting the ratification of the proceedings of either convention, the meeting adjourned until next Friday night. Appearances however indicated that the Hawxhurstites were vastly in the ascendent, and that the County 6's 482. Cotton dull at 321 for middling up-Convention's nominees would be endorsed.

FARMING. - We are told that a very large breadth of land has been put in cultivation, this season, especially in the Valley and some of the upper counties, and as the prospects, thus far, are good for crops-though it is entirely too soon to make any calculations-it is hoped that the most sanguine expectations, as to them, may be realized. In the lower counties of our State, particularly in the Northern Neck, difficulties still continue in relation to a supply of labor, which materially interfere with farming operations. If the hordes of colored people who are loaning and idleing in the towns and cities could be compelled to go to work, to earn their living by the occupation to which they have been accustomed, there would be a better Medicines sent by mail. Give an accurate state of things.

POLICE REPORT-MAGISTRATE'S OFFICE. Mary Heim, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

PERSONAL. - Among the members in attendance upon the session of the Rappahannock Presbytery, is Dr. W. W. Williamson, who resided here for several years prior to the war, and was much esteemed. Dr. W. is now a resident of his pative town, Warrenton, and is looking as well and hearty as when he left us.

VESSEL AGROUND. - The schooner Union, Captain Stuart, with grain for this city, from Mat hias's Point, was aground on the Maryland side of the River, below Fort Washington, as the steamer Wawaset, on her way up, passed that Point yesterday evening.
